BOARD OF MANAGEMENT’ STATEMENT OF RESPONSIBILITY

The Board of Management of the Company is responsible for preparing the separate financial statements for the first quarter 2026, which give a true and fair view of the separate financial position of the Company, its separate operating results and its separate cash flows for the year. In preparing these separate financial statements, the Board of Management is required to:

- Comply with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, Corporate Accounting System and the statutory requirements relevant to the preparation and presentation of the separate financial statements;
- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- State whether applicable accounting principles have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the separate financial statements;
- Design and implement an effective internal control system for the purpose of proper preparation and presentation of the financial statements so as to minimize errors and fraud; and
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business.

The Board of Management is responsible for ensuring that proper accounting records are kept, which disclose, with reasonable accuracy at any time, the financial position of the Company and that the separate financial statements comply with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, Corporate Accounting System and the relevant statutory requirements applicable to the preparation and presentation of the separate financial statements. The Board of Management is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of frauds and other irregularities.

KHAI HOAN LAND GROUP JOINT STOCK COMPANY

The Board of Management confirms that the Company has complied with the above requirements in preparing these separate financial statements.

For and on behalf of the Company,

4. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following are principal accounting policies used by the Company in the preparation of financial statements:

Basis of preparation of financial statement

The financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis (except for the information related to cash flows), under the historical cost concept, in accordance with Vietnamese accounting standards, corporate accounting system and the relevant statutory requirements applicable to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, corporate accounting system and legal regulations relating to financial reporting requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the fiscal year. Although these accounting estimates are based on management's knowledge, actual results may differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash comprises cash on hand, cash at bank and cash in transit of the Company as at the balance sheet date.

Cash equivalents comprises short-term investments with the terms of less than 03 months since the date of investment that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value at the reporting date and recorded in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standard No. 24 - Cash flow statement.

Investments in subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an entity over which the Company has control. Control is achieved where the Company has the power to govern the financial and operating policies of an investee enterprise so as to obtain benefits from its activities.

Investments in subsidiaries are carried on the balance sheet at cost less provision for impairment of such investments (if any). Provision for impairment of investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures, associates is the excess of cost over the market value of the investment or the ownership of the Company in accordance with prevailing corporate accounting system.

Business Cooperation Contract (BCC)

BCC is a contract signed between two or more parties to conduct business activities without establishing an independent legal entity. This activity may be jointly controlled by the partners under the joint venture agreement or controlled by one of the parties, BCC can be carried on in the form of jointly building assets or collaborating in several business activities. Parties of a BCC contract can have an agreement to distribute revenue, products or after-tax profits. In all cases, when receiving money and assets from other parties contributing to BCC activities, the receiving party must record it as a liability.

The First Quarter 2026

In case BCC distributes profit after tax, the parties must appoint a party to account for all transactions of BCC, record revenue and expenses, separately monitor business results and tax finalization of BCC.

Receivables and provision for doubtful debts

Receivables are monitored in detail of their original terms and remaining period at the reporting date, receivable parties, original currency and other factors depending on the Company's managerial purposes. The classification of receivables including trade and other receivables shall comply with the following principles:

- Trade receivables include commercial receivables incurred from purchase-sale transactions, including receivables from the sale of exported goods under the trust for other entities;
- Other receivables include non-sales receivables, including: receivables from bank and loan interest; amount paid on behalf of another party; receivables which the export trustor must collect from the trustee; receivables from penalties, compensation; advances; pledges, collaterals, deposits, assets lending, etc...

The Company bases on the remaining terms of receivables at the reporting date to classify them as long-term or short-term receivables.

Receivables are recognised not exceeding the recoverable amount. Provision for doubtful debts is made for receivables that are overdue for six months or more, or when the debtor is in the difficulty of solvency due to dissolution, bankruptcy, or similar difficulties in accordance with the current prevailing corporate accounting system.

Inventories

Real estate

Real estate purchased for sale or long-term rental complying with the one-time revenue recognition requirement in the normal course of business of the Company, and not for lease or awaiting price appreciation, is recognized as inventory at the lower of cost and net realizable value.

The cost of real estate includes the purchase price and other directly attributable costs incurred in bringing the inventory to its present location and condition. Net realizable value is the estimated selling price of inventory in the ordinary course of business, based on the market value at the reporting date and less estimated costs of completion and selling expenses.

Provision for devaluation of inventories is the difference between the cost of inventories and their net realizable value as at the end of the accounting period, which is made in accordance with the current prevailing corporate accounting system.

Tangible fixed assets and depreciation

Tangible fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. The costs of tangible fixed assets arising from purchases and self-constructions comprise all the costs of bringing the tangible fixed assets to their working condition for their intended use.

Costs incurred after initial recognition are recorded as an increase in the historical cost of assets if they actually improve the current status in comparison with the initial standard status of the assets, such as:

- Parts of the tangible fixed asset are modified to extend their useful life or increase their capacity; or

INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The First Quarter 2026

- Parts of the tangible fixed asset are upgraded to significantly increase product quality; or
- New technology process is applied to reduce the operating expenses of the assets.

The cost incurred for repairs and maintenance aims to restore or maintain the ability to bring the economic benefits of the assets according to the initial standard status, do not meet one of the above conditions, are recognized in the operation costs during the year.

Tangible fixed assets are depreciated under the straight-line method based on their useful lives. The details are as follows:

	Years
Office equipment	03 – 04

Intangible fixed assets and amortization

Intangible fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated amortisation, Intangible fixed asset of the Company is computer software and amortised using the straight-line method within 3 years.

Operating leases

A lease of asset is considered an operating lease in case most of the risks and rewards associated with the ownership of that asset belong to the lessor. The lease expenses are recognized in the consolidated income statement under the straight-line method over the leasing period. Amounts received or receivable to facilitate the engagement of operating leases are also recognized under the straight-line method over the leasing period.

Prepaid expenses

Prepayments are expenses which have already been paid but relate to results of operations for multiple accounting periods. Prepayments comprise costs of small tools, office repairing costs which are expected to provide future economic benefits to the Company. These expenditures have been capitalised as prepayments, and are allocated to the income statement using the straight-line method in accordance with the current prevailing accounting regulations.

Payables

The payables are monitored in detail of the original terms, the remaining terms at the reporting date, the payable objects, original currency and other factors according to the Company's management purpose. The classification of payables such as trade payables, other payables shall be implemented according to the following principles:

- Trade payables include commercial payables incurred from purchase-sale transactions;
- Other payables include non-commercial or non-trading payables, including: payables for loan interest, dividend and earning payables; payables for financial investments; amount paid to the third party; lending assets, payables for penalties, compensation; unidentified surplus assets; payables for social insurance, medical insurance, unemployment insurance, trade union; collaterals, deposits received, etc...

The company bases on the remaining term at the reporting date of payable items to classify as long-term or short-term payables

The payables are recorded not less than the payment obligations. In case there is evidence that a loss likely occurs, the Company immediately recognizes a payable under the prudent principle.

Borrowings and finance lease liabilities

Borrowings and finance lease liabilities include loans, finance lease liabilities

The loans are monitored in detail of loan object, loan agreement and loan asset; of the term of loan and finance lease liabilities and type of foreign currency (if any). The loans with the remaining term more than 12 months from the reporting date are presented as long-term loans. The due loans within the next 12 months from the reporting date are presented as short-term loans and finance lease liabilities.

The company raises funds by issuing bonds including: parity bonds (issuing bonds at par value), discount bonds (issuing bonds at a price less than the par value of the bond, and premium bonds (issuing bonds at a price greater than the face value of the bond). The Company keeps track of discount and premium details for each type of bond issued and bond issuance term, Bond discount and premium are determined and recognized at the time of bond issuance. The Company allocates the discount or premium to borrowing costs or to reduce borrowing costs under the effective interest rate method or the straight-line method.

The interest expense of a bond is qualified for capitalization, the discount or premium allocation is capitalized, respectively.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs include interests and other costs incurred directly related to the loans

Borrowing cost is charged to operation expenses during the period when incurred, except for borrowing costs directly attributable to the construction or production of qualifying assets with appropriate time (more than 12 months) to put into use for the intended purposes or sales, which recorded in value of capitalized assets whether it is subject to the fulfilment of certain conditions of Vietnamese Accounting Standard No. 16 - Borrowing cost. Borrowing costs directly attributable to the construction of fixed assets, investment properties can be capitalized even though the construction is less than 12 months.

For the general loans using for purposes of the construction or production of qualifying assets, the borrowing costs are capitalized by capitalization percentage of accumulative weighted average expenses for the construction or production of such assets. The capitalization rate is calculated by the weighted average interest rate of outstanding loans during the year, except special loans serving the purpose of a specific asset.

Accrued expenses

Accrued expenses are recognized based on reasonable estimates of actual expenses to be incurred, amounts due for services rendered during the year but not yet supported by tax invoice or other accounting documents.

Owner's equity recognition

Owner's equity is recognised by actual capital contributions from owners.

Principle on recognition of undistributed profit is the profits (or losses) from the performance business of the Corporation minus (-) income tax expense of any existing business and account adjustments due to retroactive application of accounting policy changes and adjustments retroactive fundamental errors of the previous years.

The First Quarter 2026

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the period. Taxable profit differs from net profit as reported in the income statement because it excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years (including loss carried forward, if any) and it further excludes items that are never taxable or deductible.

Deferred tax is recognised on differences between carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all temporary differences and deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which temporary deductible differences can be utilized.

Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the liability is settled or the asset is realized. Deferred tax is charged or credited to profit or loss, except when it relates to items charged or credited directly to equity, in which case the deferred tax is also dealt with in equity.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority and the Company intends to settle its current tax assets and liabilities on a net basis.

The determination of the tax currently payable is based on the current interpretation of tax regulations. However, these regulations are subject to periodic variation and their ultimate determination depends on the results of the tax authorities' examinations.

Other taxes are paid in accordance with the prevailing tax laws in Vietnam.
